

RECEPTION

EXISTING

PROPOSED

Staff would have complete visual control and an efficient secure working environment.

The new Reception would be formed by the area between the two existing buildings creating an interesting, bright space with high ceilings and flexible enough to contain a variety of functions.